Prayer for the week

Lord Jesus Christ, on the mountain top, Peter, James and John looked upon the majesty of your glory and from the mystery of a cloud heard a voice declaring you to be God's Son. Though we do not live on mountain tops, grant that we too may glimpse your glory. In the mundane predictability of our lives may there be for us moments when sight gives way to insight and the paths of earth become the road to heaven. (Iona).

Tuesday Group is a space for people to talk honestly, deeply and challengingly about our faith as well as to support each other in friendship and fellowship. Over the next few months we will be reading God in us: a case for Christian Humanism by Anthony Freeman, a book which challenges us to think about and redefine our concept of God. We meet fortnightly on Tuesdays. Alison Rowe.

Sunday Morning Coffee The further fellowship that takes place on a Sunday morning over tea and coffee is an important part of life here at Chilwell Road, as witnessed by the large gathering each week, and long may it continue to be so.

However, by comparison, the number of people on the rota to provide those refreshments is very small and the majority have been doing so for many years. In addition, many of them also undertake other church duties. So, I am appealing to anyone, particularly those who are mobile and enjoy the refreshments, to consider taking a turn on the rota and sharing the load. At present, it is once every five weeks, so the more that join, the less frequent it would be! Please speak to me in person or contact me and I will be delighted to give you further information. Many thanks. Dianne Blakeley

PM Fellowship The next meeting will be on Monday 27th February at 2.15pm. We will be looking at Philippians 2¹⁻¹⁸. Mary Austin.

What does Easter mean to you? Have you seen the back page of the February Newsletter and read about the exciting event taking place here at Chilwell Road over the Easter weekend? Have you decided what you will create in response to this question? If so, please let us know by completing one of the forms that are available from the usual collection points, Karen in the church office or any of us. To help with planning and preparation, please let us have your completed forms by Sunday 26th Feb. Diane Bown, Helen Clark, Anne Lyburn, Hilary Sutherland and Anne Wragg.

Please note on Monday 20th February Bible Study has been cancelled. The next Bible Study will be on Monday 5th March at 7pm in the Wesley Room.

On Sunday March 11th we will be celebrating the arrival of the Singing the Faith hymnbook with an afternoon of workshops and a united service at 6pm which will include new hymns and songs from the book. The afternoon will start with a "soup and roll" lunch after the morning service followed by the chance for adults and children to learn some new music, before a "congregational rehearsal" at 5.30pm during which you can learn the new hymns for the evening service. If you would like to participate please complete one of the forms you will find in the church so that we can plan the music to fit the people, voices and instruments who will be attending. Contact Chris Bridges for further information.

With regard to refreshments during the Singing the Faith event, soup and a roll will be served at lunchtime and cakes and drinks later in the afternoon. Donations will be invited to cover the cost. Should you feel the need to supplement the soup, you are very welcome to bring your own packed lunch. In order to assist with the planning of the meals, please sign up on the sheets on the notice board by the entrance into the hall. There will be a list for soup, one for cakes and one for you to indicate when you can assist with the catering. Many thanks Dianne Blakeley.
